

HELP YOUR BUSINESS AVOID FRAUD

Fraud protection by Allied Insurance

Fraud losses drive up the cost of insurance and affect everyone. Allied Insurance can help you protect your business from becoming a target from those looking to commit insurance fraud.

INSURANCE FRAUD PREVENTION TIPS

Keep your business safe — practice the following tips:

Workers' Compensation

Design and maintain a safe working environment with a written safety program that includes a zero tolerance policy for fraud as well as a Return-to-Work program to help manage costs.

Employment Screening

Allied customers have access to IntelliCorp®, a comprehensive risk management resource, at a discounted rate. IntelliCorp provides secure and instant access to criminal records and other public information that can help you make the right hiring choices, which can help prevent fraudulent claims and/or liability claims.

Slip and Fall

One example of an insurance fraud scheme is staged slips and falls. A slip and fall prevention policy, with mandatory incident reporting immediately after the fall, as well as indoor and outdoor surveillance cameras can provide invaluable information in fraudulent claim settlements.

Auto Accidents

Commercial vehicles can be targets for insurance fraud. A few helpful tips to avoid being involved a commercial vehicle fraud scheme include:

- Avoid tailgating
- Call the police to the accident scene and get a police report, even if damage is minimal
- Take photos of damage on all other vehicles involved
- Note how many passengers were in the other vehicle

ALLIED FIGHTS FRAUD ON YOUR BEHALF

Allied is passionate about preventing insurance fraud. Here are some of the ways we work to combat fraud:

- Allied's Special Investigations Unit (SIU) team was created to fight insurance fraud
- Allied leverages anti-fraud technology from point of sale to claim, including technology for health care/medical analytics
- Allied's Special Investigators, located across the U.S., review potentially fraudulent claims and investigations are handled in-house
- Our members have access to a VIN verification tool to determine if commercial vehicles have a clean title before you make a purchase
- Fraud training can be tailored to your business's needs and delivered on site
