

No one understands your local area and its unique risks like an independent agent.

The Travelers Indemnity Company
and its property casualty affiliates
One Tower Square
Hartford, CT 06183

travelers.com

.....
This material is for informational purposes only. All statements herein are subject to the provisions, exclusions and conditions of the applicable policy. For an actual description of all coverages, terms and conditions, refer to the insurance policy. Coverages are subject to individual insureds meeting our underwriting qualifications and to state availability.

© 2011 The Travelers Indemnity Company.
All rights reserved. PL-13474 Rev. 1-11

Risk has no shortage of options for you.

Fortunately, neither does a really good independent insurance agent.

One thing is certain—risk never stops finding new ways to surprise you. To help your insurance keep up, Travelers is proud to work with the best independent agents out there.

Why independent agents? Unlike their counterparts, independent agents are able to tap into the resources and expertise of multiple insurance companies. So from home to auto to business, you get more options, and more ways to create the insurance plan that's right for you.

There are other benefits as well. A good independent agent is free to give you objective advice. No strings attached. In short, a good agent has the ability to find the policy that meets your needs. No need to worry that there might be a better policy out there. And perhaps best of all, independent agents also keep insurance companies on their toes. At Travelers, we never forget that our agents are not obligated to choose our policies. So we never stop looking for ways to make our policies even better, more efficient, and more in-synch with your specific needs.

So to make sure your insurance stays in-synch, be sure to talk to an independent agent. And make sure you're ready—for whatever risk happens to drop into your lap.